SATURDAY ART CLUB AT HOME

BRILLIANT BUN CASES!

Hello again everyone
This week we've been looking in our kitchen cupboards for inspiration! There are lots of things you can do with a packet of basic paper bun cases (as well as bake cakes in them of course).

All you need for this week is: some bun cases (we used around 12), paper and/or card, sellotape, scissors, glue, a paintbrush and some paint (or pens if you prefer).

If you are very young please make sure an adult does the cutting out for you.

1. FLOWER POWER:

Start by preparing your 'flower heads'

- cut into the edges of the paper cases to create different effects
- you could cut them into strips, ad curves, cut a zig zag shape..just keep the centre of the case as it is.

Next, stick them onto a piece of paper, remembering to just stick the centre down and let the edges stick out of the page. Finally, add in your background and decorate your bun cases with paint and/or pens.

2. PLAY CAKES:

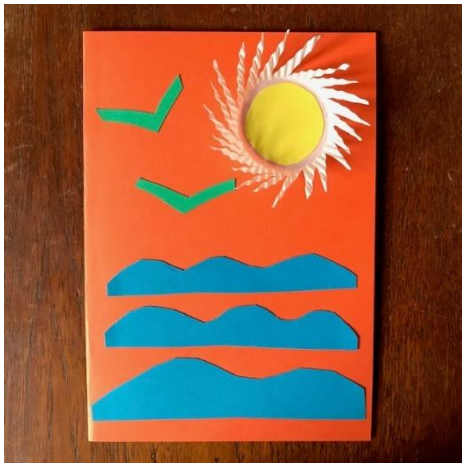
Do you ever make play shops, cafes or bakeries?

You can use your bun cases to make play cakes from card and colour paper so that you can use them again and again. We made ours by creating little tubes of colour paper and adding 'lids' by cutting circles and squares out of card and securing them in place with sellotape.

Pop them into your bun cases and decorate!

3. SUNNY CARD:

Start by preparing your 'sun' bun case similarly to how you prepared your flower heads- just choose a way of cutting it that looks most like a sun to you. Next, fold a piece of card in half and stick your sun to the front of it. Next create a beach scene or landscape using collage papers, paint and/or pens.



Hope you enjoy getting creative this week!
